

Dear Ahmet,

We will conduct the circumvention inquiries pursuant to section 781 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and our regulations at 19 CFR 351.226. Commerce's<sup>7</sup> regulations at 19 CFR 351.226(f)(3) state, "Following initiation of a circumvention inquiry under paragraph (b) or (d) of this section, the Secretary may issue questionnaires and verify submissions received, where appropriate. The Secretary may limit issuance of questionnaires to a reasonable number of respondents."

In addition, please see below instructions for interested parties wishing to monitor or participate in the circumvention inquiries:

- If you do not plan to actively participate in the inquiry as a party, you can monitor the inquiry by creating an account on the ACCESS portal. To do this, go to <https://access.trade.gov> and click on "E-Filer Registration" to register for an account. Step by step instructions can be found in the user guide, here https://access.trade.gov/help/ACCESS\_User\_Guide.pdf. When logged into ACCESS, you can monitor the inquiry by searching for the case number (A-570-028).
- If you are planning to participate in the inquiry, you will need to submit an entry of appearance in the ACCESS portal. To do this, go to <https://access.trade.gov> and click on "E-Filer Registration" to register for an account. Step by step instructions can be found in the user guide, here https://access.trade.gov/help/ACCESS\_User\_Guide.pdf. After it is approved, you can log into ACCESS and click on "Manage Entry of Appearance," and on the next screen, click on "Create New Entry of Appearance."
- Further instructions on filling out the entry of appearance are here, if you need them https://access.trade.gov/help/Rel\_4\_External\_User\_Guide.pdf.

Regards,
Melissa
